PetMedics Brand Story

Discover the amazing world of PetMedics, your ultimate destination for cutting-edge and pet parent friendly pet health solutions! Join our mission to boost the well-being of pets everywhere - physically, emotionally, and psychologically - ensuring a happier, calmer, and healthier life for our furry friends. Our innovative product line promises to nurture your pet's lifestyle as a compliment or alternative to traditional calming medications and consumables that promote "joint health" that are energizing. It's time to step into the future of pet care!

At PetMedics, we understand the importance of taking care of your pet and aim to provide only products that promote better health and happiness. We take pride in our focus on these key components.

All In One Solutions

PetMedics was established in 2019 with the mission to enhance the quality of life for your pets. Inspired by the success of the iHome sound soothers for humans, we realized that animals also suffer from anxiety just like us. Utilizing this insight, we've developed innovative products to ease their stress and elevate their happiness, benefiting both them and their owners. Since our inception, we have launched the first digital pet thermometer and created a variety of smart/wellness products that have become a "consumer favorite". We're excited to look to licensing as a way to continue growing.

Targeted Product Categories

Here at PetMedics, we're on a mission to widen our horizons and transform the lives of our furry friends! We're seeking dependable partners for an array of exciting licensing opportunities, ranging from Direct-to-Retail to Co-Branding ventures. If you share our passion for crafting top-notch products aimed at elevating pet care, we'd love to join forces and create something extraordinary together!
