A Star is Born is more than just a children's brand—it's a movement that strives to bring the kind of joy, security and love we all want for our little ones. Our standards for product inspire comfort with creative designs and innovative features. From the coziest apparel in richly soft and sustainable fabrics to fun and durable toys with clever touches tailored for those little hands, every single piece from A Star is Born embodies pure love and attention to detail.

When it comes to choosing the right brand for busy parents, A Star is Born is the perfect pick! Our brand reflects and shares values that busy families can relate to - from feeling stressed out and lacking in time, to striving for success and making the most of each day. We understand how important it is for a parent to be able to trust the quality of something they entrust their children's safety with - which is why we're committed to crafting well-designed and engineered products made with love and care.
